

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MISSOURI
EASTERN DIVISION

MARCUS D'ADDIO, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

WELLS FARGO
CLEARING SERVICES, LLC,

Defendant.

Case No. 4:21-cv-00054-SEP

ORDER

Upon consideration of Wells Fargo's unopposed Motion for Decertification and the parties' memoranda, Docs. [73], [74], [75], as well as the parties' Consent Motion Requesting Status Conference, Doc. [77], and for the reasons therein stated,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Defendant Wells Fargo's unopposed Motion for Decertification of the Conditionally Certified Collective Action is GRANTED. Doc. [73]. The Consent Motion Requesting Status Conference is DENIED as moot. Doc. [77].

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the claims of the opt-in Plaintiffs are DISMISSED without prejudice. The parties must immediately notify the opt-in Plaintiffs of the Court's action using the stipulated notice. Doc. [75-1].

IT IS FINALLY ORDERED that the Court's ADR reference is VACATED, and that, if all parties consent to arbitration, they must file a stipulation of dismissal no later than September 23, 2022.

Dated this 14th day of September, 2022.
